AGE GROUP COACH OPENING

Camel Swim Club is accepting applications for the newly developed position of Age Group Coach.

Camel is an emergent USA Swim program in southeastern Connecticut offering programming that includes a Developmental Pre-team for novices as young as five, an USA Age Group Team, a Masters group and an elite Senior Program and camp for HS and college athletes. Camel currently utilizes Connecticut College's Lott Natatorium and has plans to expand to other facilities in the area in the near term.

The Age Group Coach's primary responsibilities involve coaching swimmers 12 years of age and younger. The Age Group Coach, working under the direction of the Head Coach, will coach five 2 ½ hours practices per week including most Friday evenings, Saturday mornings and three additional evenings of the candidate's choice. The Age Group Coach will also coach weekend meet sessions two or three weekends per month. Optional morning hours are available in the summer. ASCA certification and/or previous coaching experience and computer skills are preferred.

Opportunities for coaching training and seminars are available. USA membership and safety certifications are paid for by CAMEL. Salary for this part-time position is dependent on experience.

The position begins April 10, 2007, though hours are available immediately if desired.

For more information, interested candidates may contact Ann Hughes at 860-306-7910.
